These Rules have been developed in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and internal documents of Kazakhstan Stock Exchange JSC (hereinafter – the Exchange) and determine main terms and procedure of conducting subscription to securities through the Exchange (hereinafter – Subscription).

Article 1. Main definitions, terms and designations

- 1. Definitions used in these Rules are identical to definitions and terms defined by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and other internal documents of the Exchange.
- 2. For purposes of these Rules:
 - 1) an order means an order for purchase of securities submitted by a buyer;
 - an investor means an individual or a legal entity intending to avail of services of an Exchange member to purchase securities during a Subscription;
 - a buyer is an Exchange member of the "stock" category participating in a Subscription as a buyer of securities, including on behalf of his clients (this sub-item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014);
 - 4) a seller is an Exchange member of the "stock" category or a consortium of members of the Exchange of the "stock" category participating in a Subscription as a seller of securities, including on behalf of his clients (this sub-item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014 and by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018);
 - distribution of securities between buyers means defining by the seller of maximum amounts (the price and quantity of securities) of buyers' orders according to which those orders are subject to acceptance;
 - 6) a register of orders accepted means the list of orders which were accepted by the Exchange during a Subscription and were included in the summary list of orders forwarded to the seller;
 - 7) a register of orders accepted means the list of orders subject to acceptance received by the Exchange from the seller during a Subscription;
 - 8) the trading system "Subscription" means the special version of the trading system

Article 2. General parameters of conducting a subscription

A subscription is carried out only at availability of a single seller and only at sale of securities included in the Exchange's official list or with regard to which consent was received from the Exchange to include them in the official list, taking into account aspects specified in the paragraph two of this item.

When conducting a subscription to securities subject to private placement in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, members of the Exchange – subscription participants (except for a member of the Exchange – the subscription organizer) can submit orders on their own behalf and on behalf of their clients, who are qualified investors. Members of the Exchange independently verify their client's status as a qualified investor. The Exchange is not responsible for non-compliance by members of the Exchange with this requirement.

The procedure and conditions for recognizing investors as qualified are determined by the Rules for recognizing by organizations that carry out broker and (or) dealer activities in the securities market, of individual and institutional investors as qualified investors, approved by the Resolution No. 78 of the Board of the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated February 24, 2012 (this footnote was included by the Exchange's Board of Directors decision of June 23, 2021).

The maximum number of investors participating in a private placement subscription can be no more than 50 investors.

(This item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021)

- 1-1. If a consortium of members of the Exchange of the "stock" category acts as a seller, the participants of such consortium independently determine a member of the Exchange who is a member of such association, who interacts with the Exchange when conducting a subscription and pays the Exchange commission for organizing such subscription (this sub-item was included by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).
- A Subscription is carried out by means of the trading system "Subscription" the procedure of access to which is similar to the procedure of access to the trading system specified by internal documents of the Exchange.
- 3. The procedure of exchange of electronic documents between the Exchange and Central Securities Depository JSC (hereinafter – the Central Depository), as well as communication channels used for transmission of such documents are established in accordance with the service agreement concluded between the Exchange and Central Depository.
- 4. In the course of a Subscription, the Exchange does not participate in the process of distribution of shares amongst buyers, nor does it carry responsibility for such distribution.
- 5. Settlements on transactions concluded based on subscription results can be carried out through:
 - 1) the Central Depository conducting settlements in accordance with the appropriate agreement between the Exchange and Central Depository, or
 - an organization other than the Exchange. In this case the Exchange shall neither participate in the process of settlements on transactions, nor provide any services related to such settlements.
- 6. When conducting a Subscription to shares under the program "The People's s IPO"² by a decision of the member of the Exchange's Management Board in charge of the division responsible for organizing and conducting trades, other subscription conditions may be established that are not provided for by these Rules. If settlements on transactions concluded based on results of the subscription are made through the Central Securities Depository, other terms of subscription related to the exchange of information with the Central Securities Depository are established by agreement with the Central Securities Depository. (this item was supplemented by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014 and changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).
- 7. In the event of submission of a written application from the seller by a decision of the member of the Exchange's Management Board in charge of the division responsible for organizing and conducting trades, the terms of the subscription may be changed, if such changes do not contradict these Rules (this item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).
- 8. The Exchange shall immediately notify the Central Depository and Exchange "stock market" members of a change in the subscription terms (this item was Hereinafter "The People's s IPO" program means the Program of bringing equity stakes in subsidiaries and affiliates of joint-stock company "Sovereign Wealth Fund "Samruk-Kazyna" onto the regulated securities market, approved by Resolution No. 1027 of the government of Republic of Kazakhstan dated September 8, 2011 (the numbering of this footnote was included by the Exchange's Board of Directors decision of June 23, 2021).

changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014).

Article 3. Application for conducting a subscription

- 1. In order to conduct a subscription, the seller should submit to the Exchange an application according to the form indicated in Appendix 1 to these Rules (hereinafter the application) not later than three days before the beginning date of the order collection period, mentioned in the application (with the exception specified by item 7 of this article) (this item was supplemented by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014 and changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).
- 2. Upon receipt of an application, the Exchange's division responsible for organizing and conducting trades checks the parameters and conditions of this subscription for compliance with these Rules and the technical capabilities of the Exchange and sends a memo on the performed check to the member of the Exchange's Management Board in charge of this division, which is no later than the business day following the day of receipt of the application, makes a decision on the subscription or on the impossibility of its conducting, taking into account the specifics established by items 3–4 of this article.

If a decision is made about the impossibility of the subscription in accordance with the first paragraph of this item, the issue of conducting such subscription is submitted for consideration to the Exchange's Management Board for making a final decision.

(This item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).

- 3. In case the Central Depository is the organization conducting settlements, the Exchange shall submit an application to the Central Depository to receive its consent for:
 - 1) checking compliance with criteria specified by the seller, if the application provides for such checks, and
 - 2) provision of additional information on sub-account details of investors³, if the seller's application provides for provision of such information.
- 4. The Central Depository not later than the working day following the day of receipt of application from the Exchange, shall notify it of the decision taken.
- 5. If the Central Securities Depository makes a decision to conduct a subscription, the Exchange's division responsible for organizing and conducting trades, no later than the working day following the day of receiving a notification from the Central Securities Depository in accordance with item 4 of this article, assigns a unique number to the subscription, notifies the Central Securities Depository, and also publishes on its website an informational message about the subscription, its parameters and conditions, with the exception of the subscription for securities subject to private placement. In relation to such a subscription, the Exchange does not publish any information on its website about the subscription (this item was changed by decisions of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018 and June 23, 2021).
- 6. If a decision is made to refuse the subscription in accordance with items 2 or 4 of this article, the Exchange's division responsible for organizing and conducting trades notifies the seller about it (this item was supplemented by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014 and changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of November 7, 2018).
- 7. In case a Subscription is supposed to be conducted simultaneously on Kazakhstan's regulated securities market and on the territory of a country other than the Republic of Kazakhstan, the seller must provide to the Exchange a notice of conducting meetings with investors under the proposed Subscription simultaneously with the publishing of information on conducting such meetings on the territory of a country other than the Republic of Kazakhstan.

In case of conducting such Subscription and when carrying out settlements upon results of the subscription an organization other than the Central Securities Depository, the seller must provide to the Exchange an application not later than 30 minutes before the order collection period's beginning specified in the application.

(This item was included by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014).

8. After receiving a notice in accordance with paragraph one of item 7 of this article the Exchange shall publish on its website a respective information statement.

After receiving an application in accordance with paragraph one of item 7 of this article the Exchange shall publish on its website an information statement on conducting the Subscription, its parameters and conditions and with the order collection period beginning it shall open the Subscription in the trading system "Subscription".

(This item was included by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of December 11, 2014).

Article 4. Order acceptance

1. Upon the beginning of the order collection period buyers obtain the right to submit orders subject to the terms of the subscription specified by the seller in the application.

The minimum volume of an order submitted during a subscription to securities subject to private placement is 100,000 tenge.

(This item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021)

Orders submitted to the "Subscription" trading system using trading accounts that are controlled by users of the control and provision system are subject to confirmation (or refusal to confirm) by these participants within a period of time that includes the orders acceptance period⁴ and 30 minutes following the end this period (this item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors dated September 24, 2019).

If some order was not confirmed by a Confirmation System participant (for some reason a refusal to confirm was received from a Confirmation System participant), then such order shall not be included in the register of accepted orders and is not subject to execution.

- 3. Buyers may delete their orders from the trading system "Subscription" during the order acceptance period.
- 4. The Exchange shall on a daily basis during the order acceptance period provide to the seller information on all orders submitted by buyers to the trading system "Subscription".
- 5. A Subscription is acknowledged and declared failed, if buyers have not submitted a single order.

Order collection period includes collection periods for orders from buyers and investors (the numbering of this footnote was changed by the Exchange's Board of Directors decision of June 23, 2021)

Article 5. Checking of orders

The Exchange conducts checking of orders only if terms of subscription to securities provide for execution of settlements on transactions concluded based on subscription results, through the Central Depository. In doing so:

- 1) orders after their registration in the trading system "Subscription" are sent to the Central Depository for necessary checking;
- 2) if an order fails to meet criteria specified by the seller, it shall be rejected by the trading system "Subscription";
- 3) in case of removal by the buyer of an order approved by the Central Depository as compliant with criteria specified by the seller, the Exchange shall notify thereof the Central Depository.

Article 6. Disclosure of information about persons that submitted orders

- 1. The Exchange provides additional information on details of investors' sub-accounts⁵, only if subscription terms provide for execution of settlements on transactions concluded based on results of the subscription, through the Central Depository. In doing so:
 - the buyer, submitting an order, thereby expresses his unconditional consent to disclosure of additional information on details of investors' subaccounts, as well as confirms that he received necessary consents of investors to disclosure of such information;
 - buyers' orders after their registration in the trading system "Subscription" shall be sent to the Central Depository;
 - 3) based on the buyer's order received from the Exchange the Central Depository shall disclose to the Exchange, and the Exchange – to the seller and issuer of securities additional information on details on investors' subaccounts.
- 2. If terms of the subscription provide for settlements on transactions concluded based on results of the subscription, through an organization, other the Central Depository, and provision of additional information on the investor, then the buyer, when submitting an order, provides to the Exchange such information, as well as confirms that he received necessary consents from investors to disclosure of such information.

Based on additional information received from the buyer the Exchange shall disclose such information to the seller and issuer of securities.

Article 7. Registry of accepted orders

- 1. Not later than the working day following the final day of the order acceptance period, the exchange shall compose a registry of accepted orders according to form of Appendix 2 to these Rules and transfer it to the seller.
- 2. The registry of accepted orders does not include:
 - orders which failed to pass the check for compliance with criteria specified by the seller, if such check was provided for in the subscription terms;
 - 2) not confirmed orders:
 - 3) orders which were removed during the order collection period.
- 3. The registry of accepted orders is handed over to the seller in electronic format .xml, or .xls, or .mdb by using the guaranteed information delivery transport

The list of necessary additional information on details of investors' sub-accounts is indicated in the sellers' application (the numbering of this footnote was changed by the Exchange's Board of Directors decision of June 23, 2021).

- system with cryptographic means of protection ensuring the confidentiality and integrity of data being transmitted.
- 4. Information mentioned in the registry of accepted orders and handed over to the seller is confidential and is meant for bringing together the seller and the issuer who independently carry responsibility for disclosure of such information and any possible consequences of such disclosure.

Article 8. Registry of executed orders

- The registry of executed orders is composed by the seller from the registry of accepted orders received from the Exchange, in which the seller indicates the price of each order and the number of securities which he intends to sell to the buyer on this order.
- 2. The seller may not execute all or some orders from buyers, as well as execute any of the orders not to full extent.
 - When conducting a subscription for securities subject to private placement, the seller has the right to execute orders of no more than 50 investors.

(This item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021)

- 3. The seller within the time indicated in the order, but not later than five working days from the day of receipt of the registry of executed orders, shall by means of the guaranteed information delivery transport system deliver to the Exchange the registry of orders executed in the .xml, or .xls, or .mdb format with cryptographic means of protection ensuring the confidentiality and integrity of data being transmitted
 - In case of the seller's refusal to conduct subscription (the seller declaring the subscriptions failed) he shall notify the Exchange in written within the time determined by paragraph one of this item, with indication of the reason for the refusal to conduct the subscription (declaring the subscriptions failed).
- 4. Receipt by the Exchange of the registry of executed orders means the seller's complete consent to conclusion of transactions in accordance with parameters indicated in the registry of executed orders.
- 5. The registry of orders executed is checked by the Exchange for changes made to parameters and/or number of orders accepted.
 - If the Exchange discovers inconsistencies as a result of the checking indicated in paragraph one of this item, or if the file received has been damaged (impossibility of correct processing of the file), it shall notify thereof the seller.
- The seller must correct the errors or faults detected not later than the next working day after receiving the notice from the Exchange according to paragraph two of item 5 of this article and deliver to the Exchange the corrected file with the registry of orders executed.
 - In case the Exchange has not received the corrected file with the registry of orders executed on specific time, the Exchange shall announce the subscription failed.

Article 9. Execution of settlements through Central Depository

- 1. For execution of settlements before their execution;
 - the seller must ensure the required quantity of securities in an appropriate sub-account at the Central Depository;
 - the buyer should ensure the availability of money at his bank accounts with Central Depository or the Inter-bank Money Transfer System of Republican state enterprise "Kazakhstan Center for Inter-bank Settlements" (IMTS).

- 2. The settlement period on transactions is set by the seller and cannot exceed five working days (this item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors dated September 28, 2017).
- 3. The Exchange in accordance with the registry of orders executed defines transactions in the "Subscription" trading system, draws up a summary of instructions for registration of these transactions and submits it to the Central Depository for conducting settlements on transactions.
- 4. In case of absence or insufficiency of money required for settlement of a transaction in the bank account of the buyer set up in Central Depository or ISMT the buyer may postpone execution of settlements on such transaction until the last day of execution of settlements thereupon by way of setting a special mark in the "Subscription" trading system;
- 5. The Central Depository shall reject execution of settlements on all transactions of that buyer except for transactions settlements on which were deferred according to item 4 of this article, in the following cases:
 - absence of money in the bank account of the buyer set up in Central Depository or ISMT to the amount required for settlement of all transactions of such buyer;
 - the settlement day does not correspond with the settlement period specified by the Subscription terms
 - 3) the Exchange has not received consent from the Central Depository to execution of checks according to criteria specified by the seller and provision of additional information on details of sub-accounts of investors stipulated by item 3 of article 3 of these Rules;
 - 4) in other cases, defined by the set of rules of the Central Depository.
- 6. Instructions for conducting repeated settlements on transactions denied by the Central Depository and deferred by the buyer can be sent by the Exchange to the Central Depository during the period of settlement on transactions.
 - At the last day of the period of settlement on transactions the Exchange shall send settlement instructions on all unsettled transactions of the buyer to the Central Depository.
- 7. The Exchange not later than the working day following the end of period of settlement on transactions shall draw up and forward to the seller and buyers exchange certificates on deals, as well as publish on its website a notice on results of the Subscription, except for a subscription to securities subject to private placement, for which the Exchange does not publish any information on its website (this item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021).

Article 10. Peculiarities of execution of settlements through an organization other than the Central Depository

1. When executing settlements through an organization other than the Central Depository, the Exchange shall neither participate in carrying out settlements or provide any services related to such settlements, nor draw up or hand over to the seller and buyers exchange certificates on deals.

When conducting a subscription for securities subject to private placement, the Exchange is not responsible for compliance with the limit on the number of investors with whom deals are concluded within the framework of the subscription.

(This item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021)

- 2. In case of non-fulfillment by the seller or buyer of their liabilities on a transaction which was concluded during the subscription and settlements upon which are conducted through an organization other than the Central Depository, the parties' damage recovery claims to each other are executed without the Exchange's participation.
- 3. Based on the registry of executed orders the exchange by means of the "Subscription" trading system shall notify buyers of a full or partial execution of their orders or refusal to do so.
- 4. The seller not later than the working day following the day of execution of settlements on transactions, shall provide to the Exchange a notice on results of subscription according to the form of Appendix 3 to these Rules.
- 5. The Exchange after receiving from the seller a notice according to item 3 of this article shall publish on its website a notice of results of the subscription, except for a subscription for securities subject to private placement, for which the Exchange does not publish on its website any information about such a subscription (this item was changed by a decision of the Exchange's Board of Directors of June 23, 2021).

Article 11. Responsibility for failure to fulfil liabilities on transactions concluded

1. In case of failure to fulfil by the buyer or seller of their liabilities on a transaction concluded during the subscription, such transaction shall be acknowledged as terminated, taking into account the peculiarity specified in item 2 of article 10 of these Rules. The suffering party to this transaction shall within five working days following the day of acknowledgement of this transaction as terminated send to the Exchange a notice of their claims to the guilty party of the transaction on payment of fine (penalty).

Absence of such notice by on specific time the Exchange shall consider as absence of claims of the suffering party of the transaction regarding payment of fine (penalty).

At availability of claims regarding payment of fine (penalty) on the part of the suffering party against the guilty party, the guilty party is assigned a liability to pay to the counterparty of the transaction a fine (penalty) to the amount of 0.1 % of the failed transaction.

- 2. Not later than the second working day following the day of receipt of the notice mentioned in paragraph first of item 1 of this article, the Exchange shall send to the guilty party of the transaction a notice of need to pay a fine (penalty).
- 3. The guilty party of the transaction shall transfer to the Exchange's correspondent account in the National Bank of Republic of Kazakhstan the amount of fine (penalty) not later than the fifth working day following the day of receipt of the notice mentioned in item 2 of this article.
- 4. The Exchange shall within two working days following the day of arrival of the amount of fine (penalty) to the Exchange's correspondent account according to item 3 of this article, transfer this amount of fine (penalty) to the suffering party of the transaction.
- 5. If the parties of the failed transaction have discrepancies regarding payment of the fine (penalty), each party of the trades may within five working days from the day of conclusion of this transaction turn to the Commission on solving of disputes and conflicts with an application for settlement of discrepancies regarding the payment of fine (penalty).
