

KAZAKHSTAN STOCK EXCHANGE

PRESS RELEASE

Almaty

December 8, 2009

KASE awarded business mass media representatives, who professionally covered the exchange market this year

On December 4, Kazakhstan Stock Exchange (KASE) traditionally gathered mass media representatives to celebrate sixteenth anniversary and express gratitude for their activities and proficiency. The festive event was held in InterContinental Almaty the Ankara in Kazakhstan.

Memorial diplomas and letters of commendations were awarded to:

- journalist Tatyana Batischeva (the Expert Kazakhstan magazine) – in the nomination "For high proficiency";
- chief editor of the Kursiv newspaper Daniyar Bukanov – in the nomination "Progressive editor";
- journalist Vyacheslav Ploshai (for work in the Kursiv newspaper) – in the nomination "Year breakthrough";
- journalist Gulsum Kunelekova (the Focus newspaper) – in the nomination "For immediate response";
- journalist Dinara Shumarova (Personal money and Securities Market of Kazakhstan magazines) – in the nomination "For market popularization";
- production director of the program "The exchange sprint" Marina Sultanova (Khabar TV channel) – in the nomination "For professional approach";
- journalist Vladimir Bovkis (the program "The exchange sprint" of Khabar TV channel) – in the nomination "For professional approach";
- journalist Anar Kuanyshbekova (the Alash ainas newspaper) – "Best Kazakh language journalist".

In this year KASE awarded not only media representatives, but also the mass media:

- the program "The exchange sprint" of Khabar TV channel – for the best television stock market project;
- the Kursiv newspaper – for the unbiased coverage;
- the Focus newspaper – as the urgent project;
- Interfax-Kazakhstan Information Agency – for the quality and responsiveness.

About twenty journalists, authors and editors of special and republican printed editions, television business program participated in the event.

After the event solemn part journalists communicated with the KASE chief executives and ask questions.