Board Changes

Nostrum Oil & Gas PLC (LSE: NOG) ('Nostrum' or the 'Company'), an independent oil and gas company engaging in the production, development and exploration of oil and gas in the pre-Caspian Basin, today announces that Mr. Frank Monstrey has resigned from his position as Chairman and as a member of the Board of Directors of Nostrum (the 'Board'), with the resignation taking effect from 17 April 2017. Mr. Monstrey took the decision to step down from the Board at this time in order to seek to ensure that a court order affecting certain other companies that he controls does not indirectly further affect Nostrum or any of its strategic initiatives.

Frank Monstrey served as Executive Chairman of Nostrum's predecessor entity Zhaikmunai LP and of the Board of the Company since September 2004. The Board and management of Nostrum would like to thank Frank for his outstanding contributions, leadership and dedication to Nostrum over the past 13 years.

Mr. Frank Monstrey said: "I have decided to step down from the role of Executive Chairman of Nostrum as I believe it is in the best interest of the Company to be able to pursue its strategic objectives without the distraction of my involvement in the litigation which was announced on 20 March 2017. I believe the Company has a very important year ahead of it and would not want it to be indirectly impacted or for me personally to be distracted from focusing fully on the Company's objectives. As soon as the litigation has been concluded successfully I fully intend to seek re-election to the Board but in the meantime will focus all my efforts to resolving the litigation as swiftly as possible. In the meantime I wish the Company every success in achieving all its goals, I believe it is in an excellent position to deliver significant value to shareholders in the coming years."

Mr. Kai-Uwe Kessel, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, said: "Since 2004 Frank has led Nostrum through its development from a start-up company into one of the leading independent oil and gas producers in the former Soviet Union and to its current position as a company with a premium listing on the London Stock Exchange and FTSE 250 membership. Frank has made enormous contributions toward the transformation that Nostrum has achieved during its time under his leadership. While we are sorry he has decided to step down from the Board at this time, we are proud that Frank is taking this step with the interests of the Company in mind."

Mr. Mark Martin, who previously served as Nostrum's Senior Independent Director, has been appointed by the Board as its Chairman as from 18 April 2017. Mr. Martin is a UK national who was appointed as a director of the Company on 19 May 2014 and as Senior Independent Director on 31 December 2016. Mr. Martin has over 20 years of investment banking experience with Barclays, Baring Securities and ING, where he was the global head of equity capital markets from 2003 to 2011. Between 2011 and 2014, he served as the CEO of Exillon Energy PLC. Mr. Martin graduated from Cambridge University with a degree in social and political sciences.

Further announcements may be made regarding consequential changes to the composition of Board committees when appropriate.
