
Astana city

Kurmangazy Iskaziyeu appointed as a First Deputy Chief Executive Officer of KazMunayGas

He also has taken the helm of KMG Representative Office in Aktau. Beyond that, based on the minutes of today's meeting of KazMunayGas Board of Directors, K. Iskaziyeu was elected as a member of the National Company's Top Management.

K. Iskaziyeu graduated from the Oil Faculty of the Kazakh Polytechnic Institute named after V.Lenin with the degree of Mining Engineer and Geologist. He has a doctorate degree in Geological and Mineralogical Sciences.

He started his career as an Operator at EMBANEFT Production Association.

From 2006 to 2024 he held a number of posts and headed Embamunaigas, KazMunaiGas Exploration and Production, KazMunayGas Representative Office in Aktau, Kalamkas-Khazar Operating.

In different years, he worked in KazMunayGas as an Executive Director of Oil and Gas Production, Managing Director of Geology, Geophysics and Reservoirs, Chief Geologist, Managing Director of Non-Operating Assets, Chief Exploration, Production and Oilfield Services Officer and Chief Geology and Exploration Officer.

K. Iskaziyeu is an honoree of the Al-Farabi State Prize in Science and Technology. He was awarded the KURMET Order.